MEG STARS ON SUNDAY

MYSTIC Meg's Wheel of Fortune could help win the midweek Lottery. First note the three numbers inside your star sign. Then take the first letter of your first name and note the three numbers next to that. Now you have six numbers. But if you like the 'hot' number in centre star or have a lucky number, use these too.

LOTTERY LORE: A tarot deal for the April 17 draw gives 14, 17, 21, 36, 41 and 44 as lucky numbers.

NEWS OF THE NUMBERS: 22 is ready to get hotter. In the tarot, card 22, the World Card, signifies stepping into a new world. If you're playing Irish Lotto, add any numbers over 42, so 48 + 9 + 8 = 22.

For one-on-one readings (for guidance only) sell Meg's Liveline, 8am-midnight. Callers must be 18 or over. Calls cost £1.50 a minute. Try Meg's tarot line too. Calls cost 60p a minute at all times.

Missing Milly 'hoax' outrage

SICK WOMAN HAS POSED AS YOUNGSTER

BY SARAH ARNOLD

THE hunt for missing Milly Dowler took a shocking twist last night when it emerged a deranged woman has been posing as the missing youngster.

Police believe the sick hoaxer called into a recruitment agency pretending to be Milly.

Staff at the Midlands bureau failed to recognise the name as that of the missing girl and took the woman on their books.

It is thought the hoaxer even gave the agency Milly's real mobile phone number. Police believe she may have got it by gaining the trust of people who knew the schoolgirl.

The agency used the number to contact Milly, real name Amanda, when a job vacancy arose and left a message on her voicemail AFTER the 13-year-old vanished at 4pm on March 31.

Twisted

It was on March 27—six days after Mitty went missing in Walton-on-Thames, Surrey—that the employment agency appears to have phoned her mobile.

The twisted creature also contacted TV's Crimewatch programme, claiming to be Milly

Police say the hoaxer has hampered the investigation and previous high-profile inquiries. Officers have now been briefed on how to spot her.

NEW PICTURE

THIS party snap of Mully was released by a pal yesterday to jog memories. It is an image of a sparkling girl with no hint of the torment to come.
